

BETTY LAM

Betty has 25+ years in management and accounting from various industries including manufacturing, motorcycle finance & insurance, mortgage lending, construction contracting, and wealth management, as well as 14 years with Almay & Moats, CPA's. Continuing with the transition from Cynthia Moats to David C. Bryant, CPA she is also currently an adjunct instructor with Harford Community College teaching QuickBooks and MS Office Suite classes and works full time for the DOD. She enjoys her grandchildren, motorcycle trips with her husband and gardening in her spare time.