

DAVID BRYANT

David C. Bryant is a Certified Public Accountant and founder of David C. Bryant CPA in 2001. He has a degree in Accounting from the University of Baltimore and has been a Certified Public Accountant since 2001. He has worked in public and private accounting for both commercial and federally focused companies. David C. Bryant CPA is a full-service accounting firm that focuses on its clients and their long-term well-being. Dave and his exceptional team can help individuals and companies to be tax efficient and focus on their personal areas of expertise.

His focus is always on the community and his family. Dave and his wife Ann Marie have been married 25 years and are the proud parents of four girls aged 12 to 21. He has served on several boards and strategic planning committees for organizations in the Harford and Baltimore county areas. If not at work or supporting these organizations, you can often find him coaching or actively observing soccer or basketball, at dance recitals or running his four daughters to their other various activities
